"Uninvolved" is the debut album for Gothic Metal project Evergaze Eternity.

The album has been produced by Marco Ribecai (Eldritch/Node) at Syncropain Studios and mixed at Mastering Room AB by Goran Finnberg. It includes ten songs in a very much personal gothic metal mood, with doom, alternative and electric rock influences.

It features an outstanding performance by Terence Holler (Eldritch) on the song "In A Corner" and a wonderful cover version of Madonna's "Live To Tell".

"Uninvolved" has outstanding credits:

Valeria Salerno [Lead and Backing Vocals]

Giovanni Ferranti [Synthesizers/FX/Programming]

All Music written by Giovanni Ferranti

All Music arranged by Evergaze Eternity and Marco Ribecai

All Lyrics by Valeria Salerno except "In Vain" and "The Hive" by Giovanni Ferranti

All guitars and Bass (except "Memories") played by Marco Ribecai

Drums and percussions played by Dave Simeone

Bass on "Memories" played by Lorenzo Carpita
