

After the publication of their latest album " Living 4 "(Valery Records 2009), Elektradrive present their first video clip of their careers.

It's "Dirty bloody war of angels", excerpt from "Living 4", which deals with the civil commitment that distinguishes the band from the beginning, the hot topic of unjust wars for reasons of economic interest created by the dark power international arms industry.

The video was shot by director Louis Galletti between Milan and Piedmont with two main environments: a field plowed by an old farmer and a "junkyard", former military depot facilities where the band appears in a live set.

"With great pride we present our first official video after many years of presence on the stage. We consider this step a tile inevitable in our careers.

We are really pleased to have made ??this work, which we think is a credit to the commitment and artistic sensibility of the band, for the simple fact that today the video is an art in the margins of the music. We thank all our ailments. fans who have always followed and that we believe will appreciate our value and our passion through this our last job. "

These are the words of Simon Falovo, historical Elektradrive that will be the guest guitarist Pino Scotto live on TV Rock Monday, December 20 at 14:00 into the transmission channel 718 Database - SKY.
