

The I Suffer Incorporated confirm further major investments, which are in addition to the already large group of guests (Tommy Sadist, Marco Di Salvia of Node, Mauro former Kingcrow Jasmine and Val Monteleone the Dying Diva): Gianluca Fontana Necrodeath (bass) Count of Wine and Spirit (vocals and guitar).

The I Suffer Incorporated are truly honored to these collaborations, which will give more shades and colors on varied songs, imbued with power and compactness, but also of heterogeneity.

Meanwhile, work continued for the arrangement of mini imminent publication of which, remember, will be titled "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Me (n) this Disorders", whose tracklist in principle provided a cover of Bonnie Tyler, the famous "Total Eclipse of The Heart" and three original songs.

The above cover (which during the arrangement turned out to have too little mordant) has been replaced by a far more powerful and explosive "Doctor Doctor" of the legendary UFO, which will see a marvelous vocal duet Mauro and Alex.

The band has also composed another piece of pure "glam / rock / death / core" (an unlikely blend of Hardcore Superstar and Soilwork period of "Natural Born Chaos").

The tracklist of the mini will be as follows:

1. Blasting Rodeo Drive
2. Do not Wanna Be Like Johnny
3. The Male Supremacy or How to subjugate a Woman in 10 Easy Steps
4. Doctor Doctor
5. Pocket Doll
