

Here we are!

As announced a few days ago, Joke Addiction are ready to release their debut under the protective wing of Spider Rock Promotion!

G.A.S. (Get Away Simply), the title of the EP, will be released worldwide on Friday February 10th, 2017 exclusively for Spider Rock Promotion on digital platforms, distributed by Believe Digital.

The album, recorded at Arsonica Rec Studios in Syracuse, mixed and mastered by Joke Addiction, is genuino and pure Hard'n'heavy, where Thrash / Groove made in the USA, and Funk Grunge Rock echoes can be perceived, well blended with sociological issues, philosophical and intimate submitted by Joke Addiction in a mood that is anything but austere, according to the dictates of the genre.

Everything is done with a mastery in technique and arrangements that makes it seem Joke Addiction real veterans.

We jumped off the chair, and we are ready to bet that you will do likewise.

Below the cover artwork and tracklist:

1. I Am What I Am
2. My Life Is A Bad Time
