Neurasthenia I will be embarking on this adventure, despite a drastic change in the line-up that has made great efforts necessary for the preparation of the show. In fact, Phil has officially left the band for personal differences.

Neil, Lehmann & Rudy want to take this opportunity to greet and thank Phil for all the good times spent together. With great sadness make public the news of his departure from the band and wish him the best for his future projects.

From this time on guitar Lehmann will (temporarily, with the possibility of staying in the role) while Matt Checcoli (Ophiura) will play bass on tour as a session man.

Rudy, for reasons not related to his will is unable to follow his band on this tour in Russia and provides fans the professionalism of its sotituto Rick Perugini (Desecrhate, Toxic Slim), who will accompany the Neurasthenia as a session drummer. We will review Rudy hides behind the next event in the Italian Neurasthenia, when the band will be headlining a festival to be held in Moline (BO) on October 1 next, and of which more details will follow.

The band also stated that due to the sudden departure was forced to relinquish the "Bologna Loves New York", scheduled for September 11 Estragon in Bologna.

Neurasthenia Russian Tour 2011 Line-Up:

Neil - Vox / Guitar

Lehmann - Guitar

Matt Checcoli - Bass
